

The New Dining Practice Standards: A Dietary Regulator's Perspective

Food and dining are an integral part of individualized care and self-directed living for people. Come learn the importance of the new clinical standards, the reasons for change in using therapeutic diets and how the regulations support them.

This is an excellent seminar about dining in home and community-based living, and would be appropriate for anyone who partners in the care of older adults.

Presenter: Connie Magnuson, Region 1 Field Supervisor, Survey Team, IDPH

When: February 23, 2012

Time: 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. Registration begins at 8:30 a.m.

Where: The Abington, 3901 Glenview Rd., Glenview, IL

Registration Fee: $20. Price includes a light breakfast and 1.0 contact hours for social workers. Contact hours will be provided by Mather Lifeways.

To register please send the registration information below with a check made out to the Illinois Pioneer Coalition by February 17, 2012 to:

Courtney Bouker, Arden Courts, 3240 Milwaukee, Northbrook, IL 60062. For questions please call 847-795-9000. Registrations will be accepted at the door on the day of the seminar.

Name: _____ Profession: _____

Facility: _____

Employer Address: _____

Contact Phone Number: _____ E-mail address: _____

Brought to you by the Illinois Pioneer Coalition. Proceeds benefit the Illinois Pioneer Coalition.