This publication was made possible through a grant from the Illinois Department of Public Health.

Illinois Long Term Care Facilities have made tremendous progress in culture change. This book is about these homes that have implemented culture change practices. Tales From the Prairie will inspire you on your personal culture change journey. Tales is divided into sections about Care, Community, Food, Life Enrichment, Preference and Workplace. The stories in each section will educate and encourage you on your quest to improve the quality of life of elders in long term care.
